PEACE ASTITUTE.

UNDER BRILLIANT AUSPICES.

Award of Medals and Prizes -- Sorrow at Parting.

Last night was commencement night at Peace Institute. It is always an oo people, but to people from all over the South. Last night as is usually the case, there was a splendid audience in the spacious chapel, including representatives from many States. These people are the parents, guardians and friends of the young lady pupils who come from all over the South to attend this school, the prestige of which is second to no institution in this country.

A Beautiful Scene. The most vivid and poetical imagination would and difficulty in conjuring up a more beautiful scene than was presented in Peace hall.

One hundred or more young ladies, all dressed in snowy white, appeared of the spacious rostrum seated among the them so honorable and useful." grand organs and pianos and large vases and pillars of beautiful potted plants tion, we hand you a copy of this resolu-

Presentation of Prizes and Medals.

Just before the presentation of prizes by Prof. Dinwiddie, Prof. Burwell announced that he had been requested by Miss Buck, of the Depart of Art, to present some prizes to members of her class, which he did as follows:

Miss Annie Cummings, for proficiency Miss Lizzie Bowen, for proficiency in free-hand drawing.

The prize for the greatest proficiency in drawing among the younger pupils, Miss Sallie Clark was awarded the gold medal for proficiency in general drawing and painting. Miss Maude Merrimon was awarded prize for the best collection of French quotations and proverbs. Prof. Dinwiddie then, in a beautifully worded address, presented the medals as follows: For Deportment and Scholarship— Miss Willie Brown Grayes, of Bedford

City, Va.; Miss Katie Lawrence, of Raleigh.

Rev. Peyton H. Hoge, D. D , of Wi'e mington, presented the certificates of graduation, and a bible each, to the members of the class.

His remarks were in the choicest language, and embodied the noblest and most eloquent sentiments.

Sorroys at Parting.

It is understood by the public generally that the connection of Rev. Robt. A LARGE GRADULTING CLASS Burweil and Prof. J. B. Burwell with Peace Institutel ceases with the close of this session. They have presided over Rich Music -- A Benutiful Scene -- the institution for eighteen years. Their work is their monument, and that work speaks for them with the force of thousands of eloquent tongues.

Last night Capt. E. R. Stamps, of the board of trustees, on behalf of the board, casion of interest, not only to Raleigh arose just before the close of the exercises, and in a voice trembling with emotion, stated to the audience that the valued services of the Messrs. Burwell were about to be lost to the institution. His remarks were eloquent and deeply effective. He said he could not command language to express his sorrow and regret at this dissolution of Principal and institution.

He then handed to Prof. J. B. Burwell a copy of a rosolution adopted by the board of trustees, which reads as follows:

"RESOLVED, That a committee be appointed to tender to Messrs. R. Burwell and Son our high appreciation of them as gentlemen of highest character and culture, and our sincere regrets at the severance of a relation that has been to ns so satisfactory and pleasant, and to

RALEIGH IN BRIEF.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN AND AROUND THE CAPITAL.

Short Items of News Gathered on the Fly by the Chronicle's Reporters.

There will be a young exodus from Raleigh to the Chapel Hill commence-

Deputy Sheriff Lane, of Granville county, brought in four convicts to the penitentiary yesterday.

At a meeting of the D. R. Club yesterday, Telfair Horton and John Mc-Kee were elected Vice Presidents. The office candidates surrounded by little groups of friends and jokers can be seen at every turn of the corner now. "Local development" is being much talked about just now, and there are good indications that the talk will result in something practical. An excursion train of six cars will leave here for Tarboro this morning. It is the annual excursion and pic-nic of the Raleigh Baptist Tabernacle.

The matrimonial market continues weak. Only twenty-one marriage licenses were issued by the county register of deeds in May.

The revenue collections for this, the 14th district, for May were $135,986.89. This is the largest collection for any one month for more than fifteen years.

The census takers began work yesterday. In the language of the Great High Goltoroff, don't ask us such census questions as our senses will not see where the sense is for fear you might incense us, and hereby get bereft of your senses.

A good band will accompany the exeursionists to Tarboro to-morrow. The members are: C. B. Hart, C. F. Lumsden, Frank Lumsden, Mart Thompson, Geo. McCullers, J. A. Thompson, Will Perry, Will Macy, Geo. F. Ball, R. H. Levy, J. W. Cheek.

Advices have been received here stating that S. K. Martin, Esq., brother of Maj. W. H. Martin, of this city, who received serious in?uries in a collision on the Pennsylvania Railroad, some years since was totally paralyzed on one side a few days ago, at his home in Harrisburg.

Raleigh industries are increasing. The CHRONICLE is glad to note that Messrs. Barbee & Pope have established a new candy factory at their store on Fayetteville street. No better candy is made anywhere, and we look to see them baild up a large sale throughout the State. We have tried it and Huyler himself cannot make better candy.

IMPORTERS' AGENTS

-FOB-HE-NO TEA.

The New York Chamber of Commerce, in their thirty-second annual report, publish a caretal review of the ten trade, giving special attention to some gross abuses calculated to curtail the use of ten. The

"The demand for low-priced common tea is growing med raily, lessening the use of good and fine teas, and the efforts of the trade to supply customers with tea for price will result in lessening the consumption of teas. It encourages the importation of common tea, and must result disastrously to the business. The producing countries can supply an unlimited quantity of poor tea that is really not fit for consumption.

"Prizes which have been given away by retail stores, possibly may account somewhat for the demand for low-grade teas, but it seems hardly credible that consumers expect to get as good a tea with a prize, at a certain price, as they could obtain for the same price and not pay for the extra article." Why will not the general public listers to a warning from so high an authority, and consider the great advantage to their own health and pocket, to be got by exercising more thought in the selection of their teas. It is also to be noted that the chief sufferers from "TEA NOT FIT FOR CON-SUMPTION" are just those who can least afford to waste their money. As long ago as 1875 all of the facts about tea and its abuses were given in the Baltimore press by Messrs. Gillett & Co. They have been untiring in their efforts to open the eyes of the public to such abuses. Possibly their motive was their own profit, for all that time they were introducing their He-No tea. All the same, the result has been a public benefit, and the favor won by a good tea such as He-No is, proves that Baltimoreans, to a considerable extent, have heeded the seasonable counsel of the Gillets.

Your Grocer can supply you with He-No Tea at 75 cents per pound package; 40 cents per half pound package; or 20 cents per 1-4 pound package.
